Cancellation

The student may only terminate the study contract in writing at the end of an academic year (i.e. as of 15.11.). The notice period is six weeks to the end of the academic year. Special arrangements are possible in case of serious illness or relocation out of the catchment area.

The Light-on-Yoga Academy reserves the right to terminate the study contract prematurely if the student will not achieve the educational goal in the long term or if, due to his or her behavior there are doubts about the suitability for a further continuation of the study. This action can only be taken by resolution of all faculty members in joint discussion with the student.

This fixed-book contract is Basic Studies 1 + 2 are a coherent, structured study of Yoga in the direct lineage of B.K.S. Iyengar with the aim of preparing students for the advanced course of study „Art of Teaching“.

Participation in the basic course of study does not automatically imply admission to the advanced course of study „Art of Teaching“.

Admission to the advanced study course „Art of Teaching“ requires the recommendation of two lecturers of LOY in the subjects Āsana and Prānāyāma as well as the successful completion of internal examinations in the subjects Anatomy, Physiology and Philosophy.

I have read the contract and agree with its content.
